If you are reporting a crime in progress, call 9-1-1 immediately.

A message from District Attorney Dolores Carr:

"Thank you for visiting this "Gang Free" resource page sponsored by the Santa Clara County Office of the District Attorney. Gangs and young people who associate with gangs, present special problems for law enforcement. They also cause special issues for the families of gang members and the people who associate with them. We hope that you find the information here useful. There are links to every Santa Clara County law enforcement agency, as well as information about laws relating to truancy, gang involvement and programs that can help parents better deal with issues facing today's youngsters. The information here will be updated regularly as new information and programs become available. You can also contact us by phone at 408-808-FREE or (408-808-3733)."

The "Gang Free" resource page partners with Silicon Valley Crime Stoppers...

If you have any information about gang-related crimes, please call the Crime Stoppers tip line at 408-947-STOP or (408-947-7867) or submit an online e-mail tip thru: www.tipsubmit.com
Your call will remain anonymous and rewards up to $1,000 are given if your tip leads to an arrest.
