

Juvenile Justice 2015 Annual Report

PRESENTED BY MARIEL CABALLERO, PROGRAM MANAGER JUVENILE PROBATION

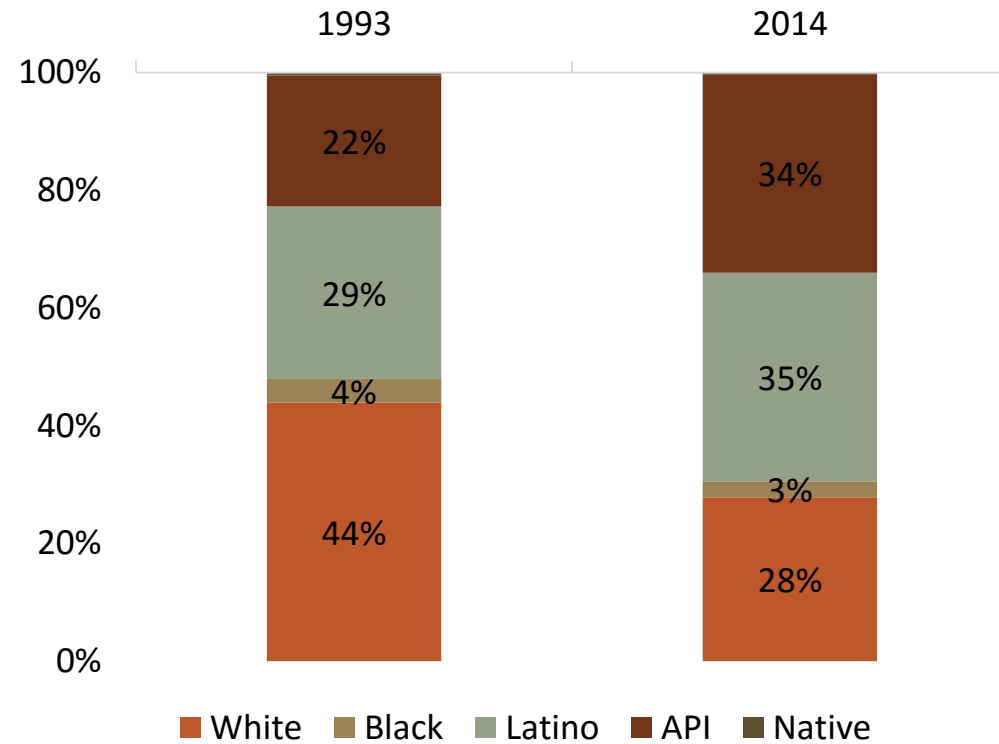

CONTRIBUTORS: THE JUVENILE JUSTICE COURT; PROBATION DEPARTMENT: JUVENILE SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS DIVISIONS; DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE; OFFICES OF THE PUBLIC DEFENDER AND ALTERNATE DEFENDER; INDEPENDENT DEFENSE COUNSEL OFFICE, SOCIAL SERVICES AGENCY: DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY AND CHILDREN SERVICES; BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES DEPARTMENT; AND W. HAYWOOD BURNS INSTITUTE.

Youth Population Served

Demographic Shifts in Youth Population
1993-2014
(ages 10-17)

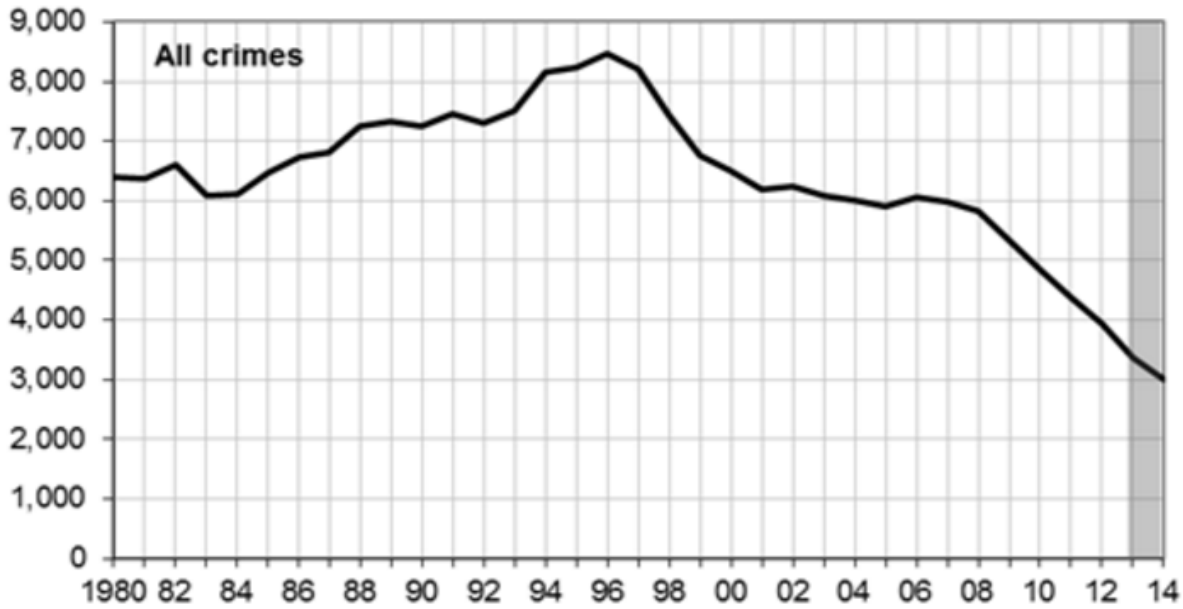

Youth Population Change
1993-2014

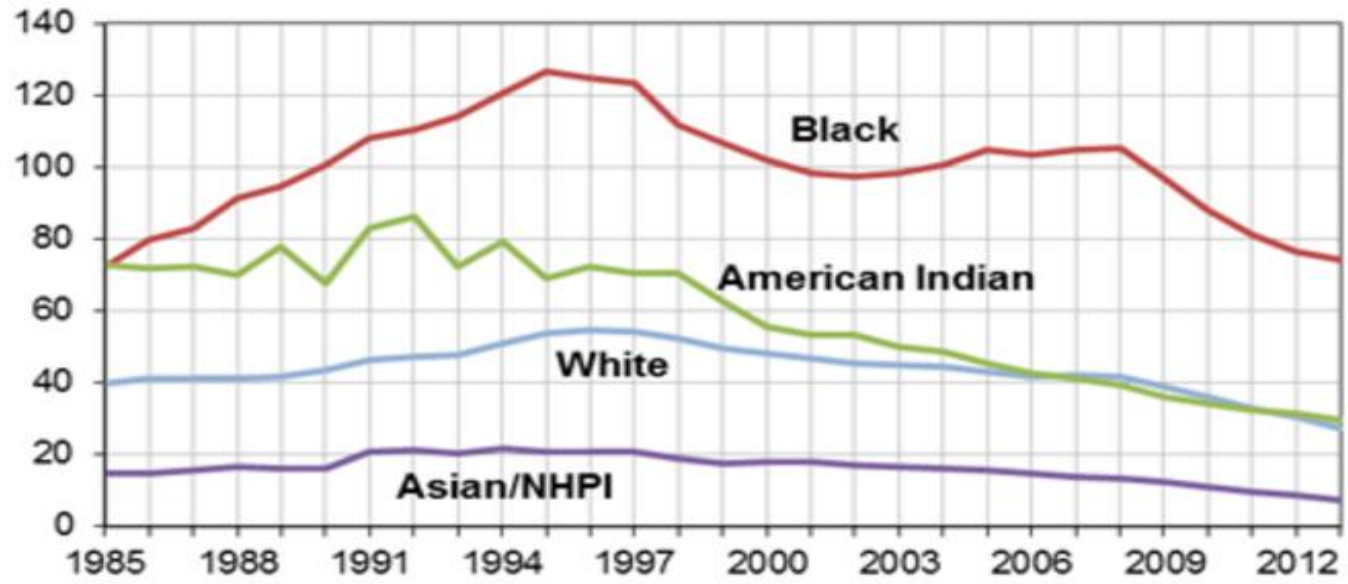

National juvenile arrest rates have dropped substantially since 1996

Arrests per 100,000 juveniles ages 10-17, 1980-2014

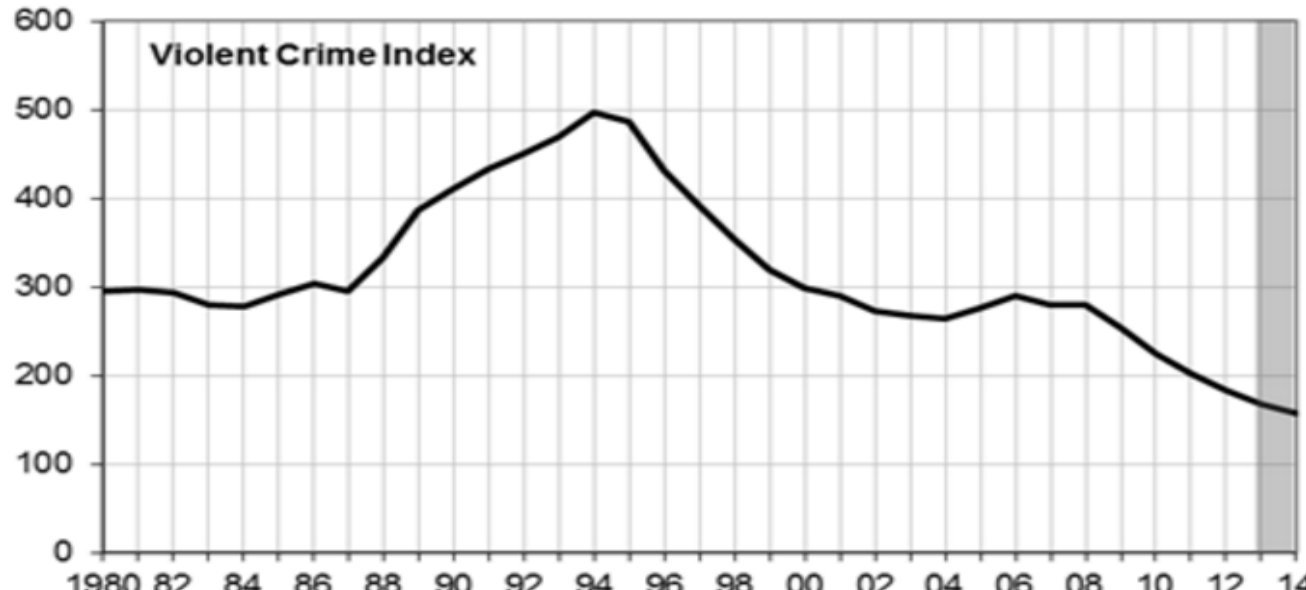

Cases per 1,000 juveniles ages 10-upper age, 1985-2013

Arrests per 100,000 juveniles ages 10-17, 1980-2014

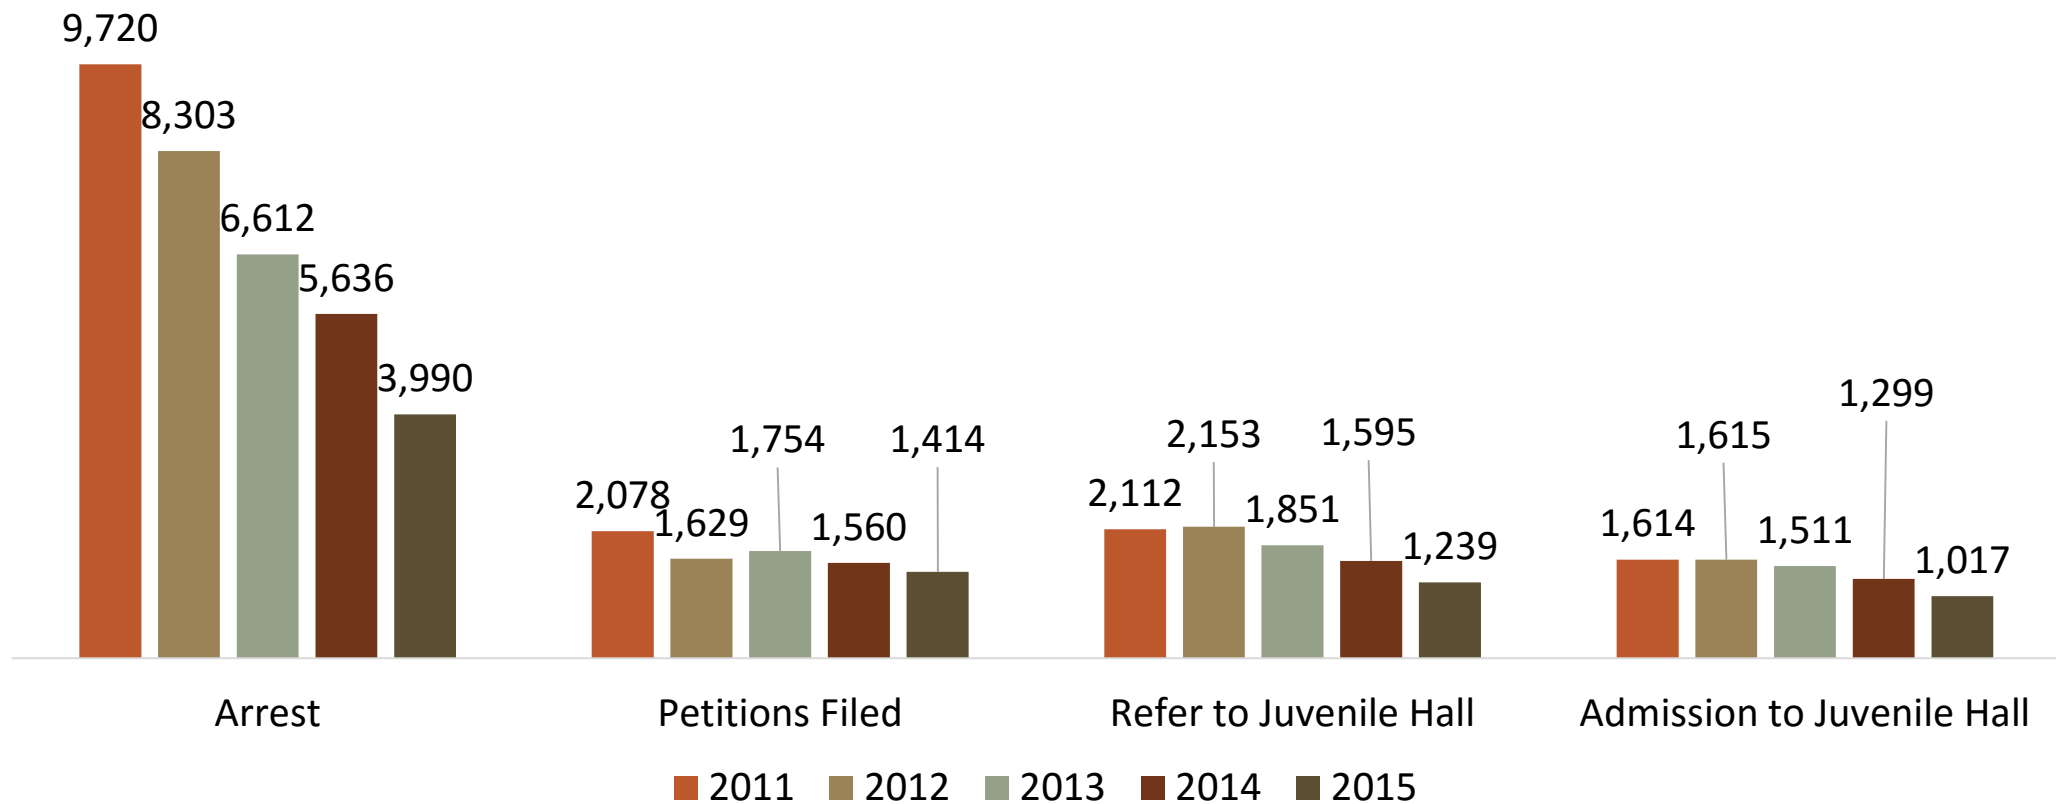

Arrests per 100,000 juveniles ages 10-17, 1980-2014

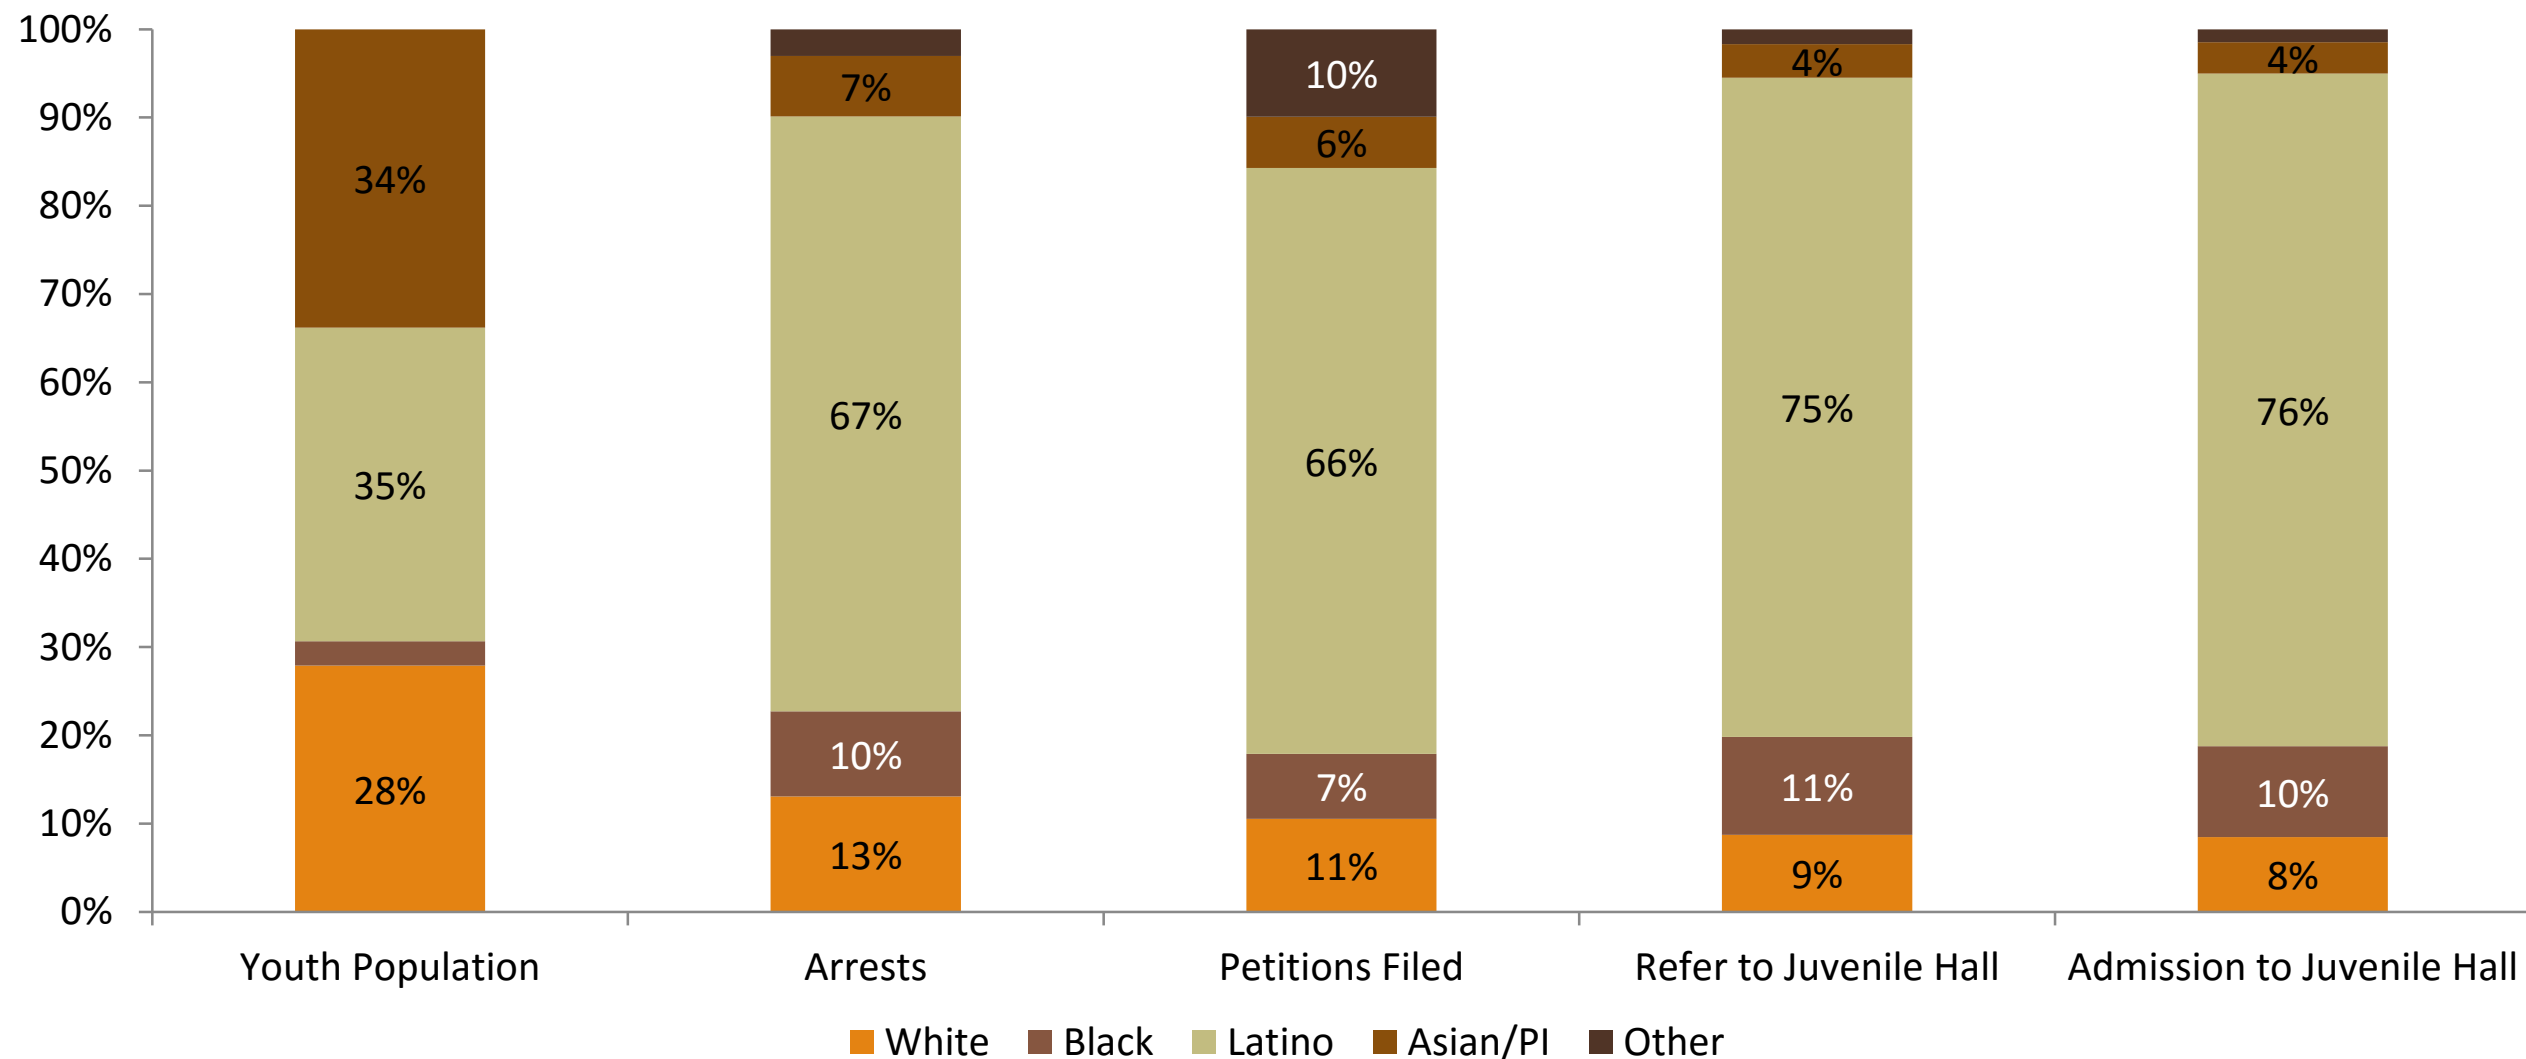

Year in Review: At-a-Glance

Measure	Number	Change from Previous Year
Arrests/Referrals to JPD	3,990	-29%	↓
Petitions Filed	1,414	-10%	↓
Referrals to Juvenile Hall	1,239	-41%	↓
Admission to Juvenile Hall	1,017	-37%	↓
Percent Detained in Juvenile Hall	82%		→
Property Crime Referrals	1445	-24%	↓
Drug & Alcohol Referrals	491	-54%	↓
Felony Crimes Against People Referrals	424	14%	↑
Youth Filed as Adults	33	-17%	↓

2011-2015 Trends of System Involvement

Disproportionality at a Glance (2015)

Less than 5% not shown above, i.e. Black & Other equal less than 5% of the youth population, respectively.

Arrests and Citations

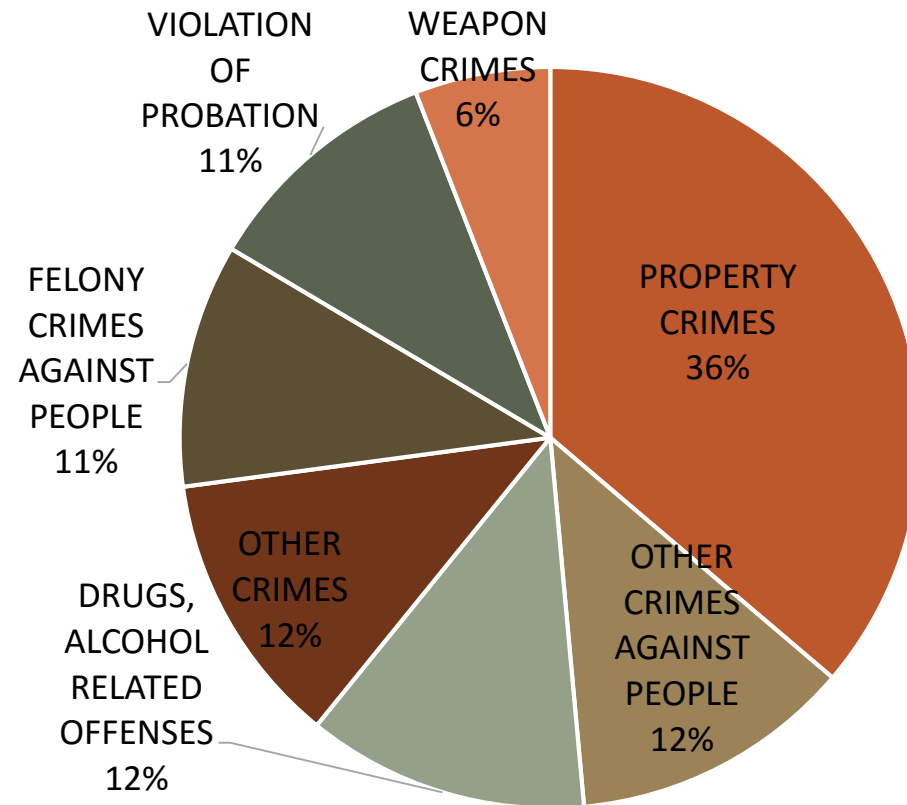

Numbers: 3,990 arrests

Trends: There were 29% fewer arrests in 2015 than in 2014

Most Frequent Reasons: Property Crimes (36%) and Drug/Alcohol (12%)

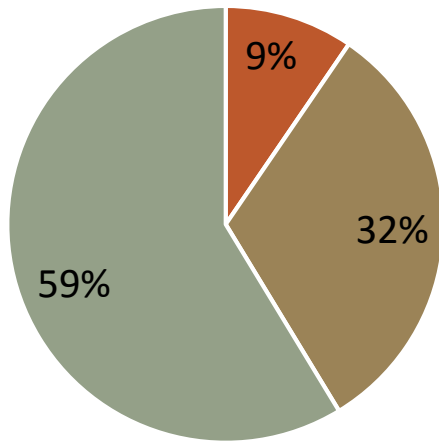

Disparities: Black and Latino youth were 7.5 and 4 times more likely than White youth to be arrested/cited

Geography: 61% of arrested youth reside in San Jose, 7% in Sunnyvale and 6% in Gilroy

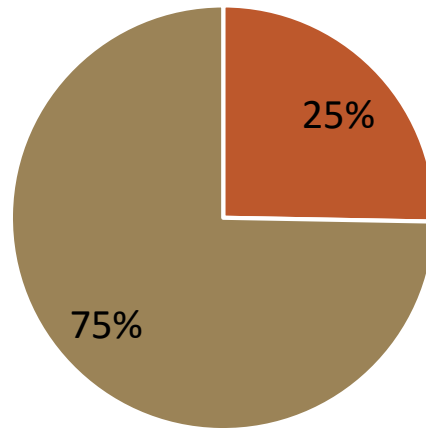

Arrests & Citations: Demographics

2015 Age of Youth Arrested/Cited

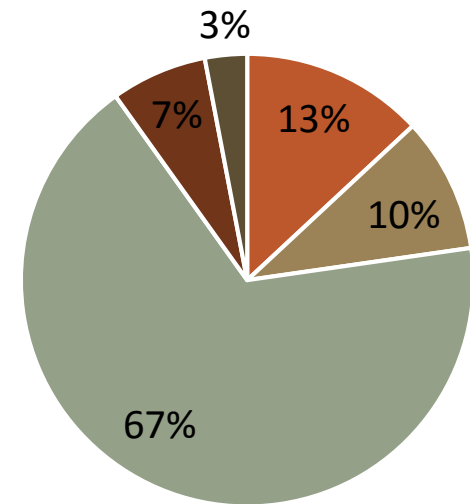

■ 13 & Under ■ 14-15 ■ 16 & Older

2015 Gender of Youth Arrested/Cited

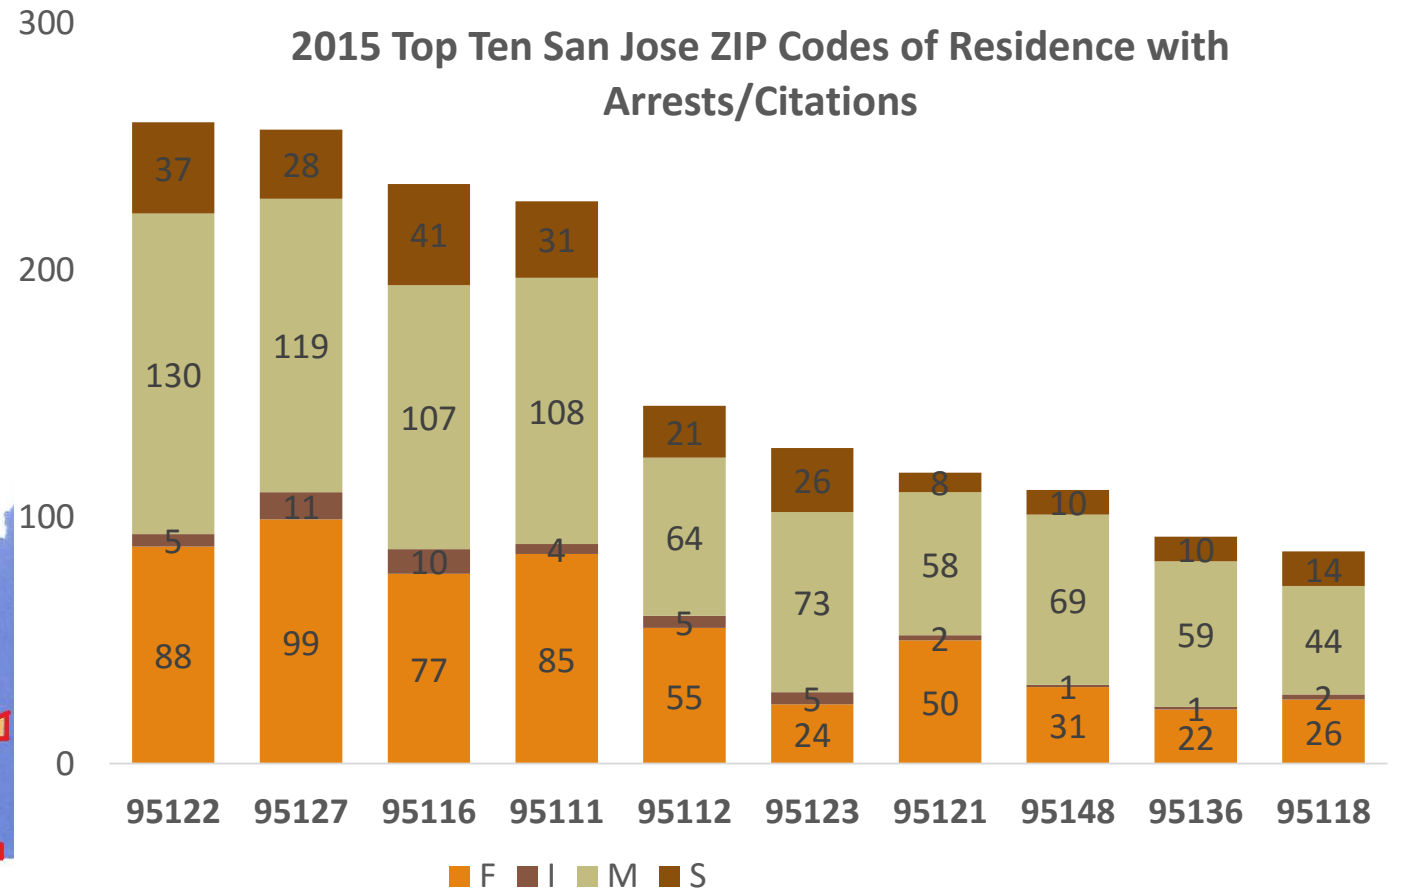

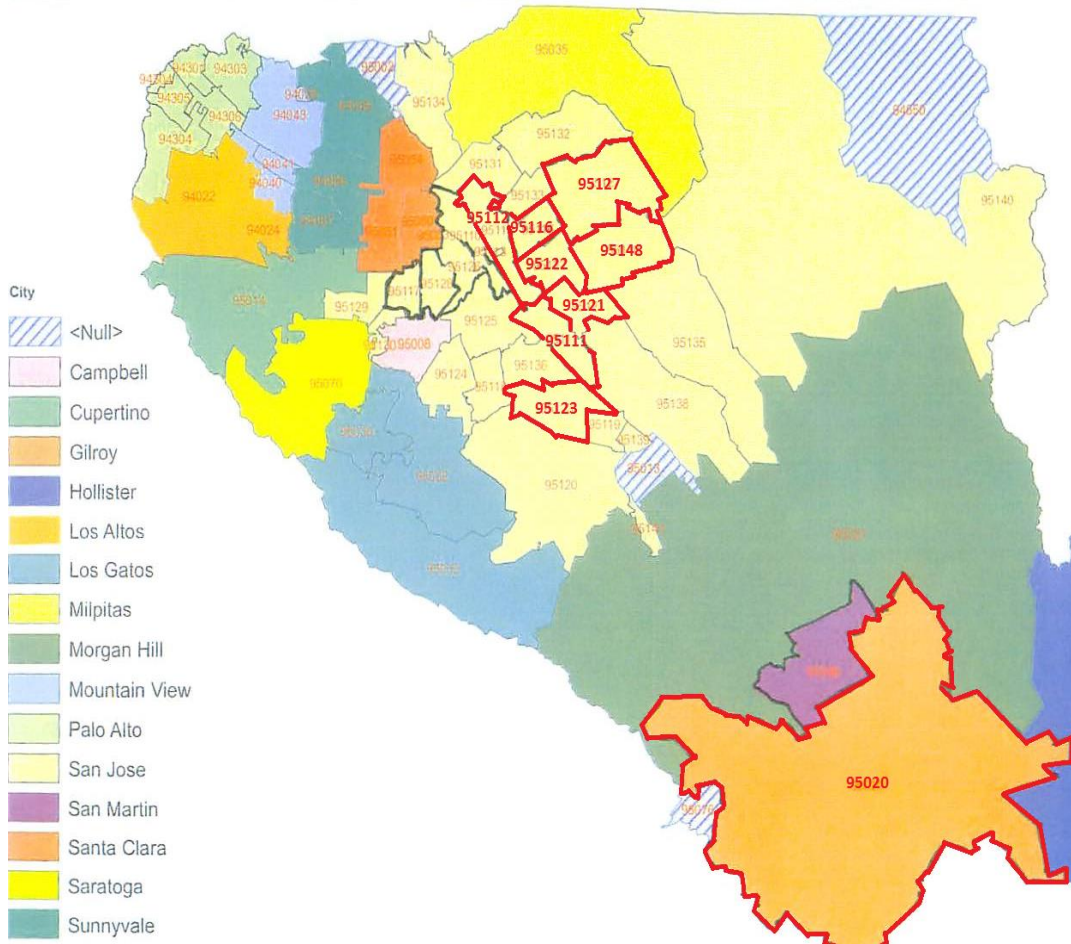

■ F ■ M

Santa Clara County Arrests (2015)

■ White ■ Black ■ Latino
■ Asian/PI ■ Other

Arrests & Citations: Geography

Intake & Admissions

Admission Numbers: 1,017

Trends: There were 22% fewer admissions in 2015 than in 2014

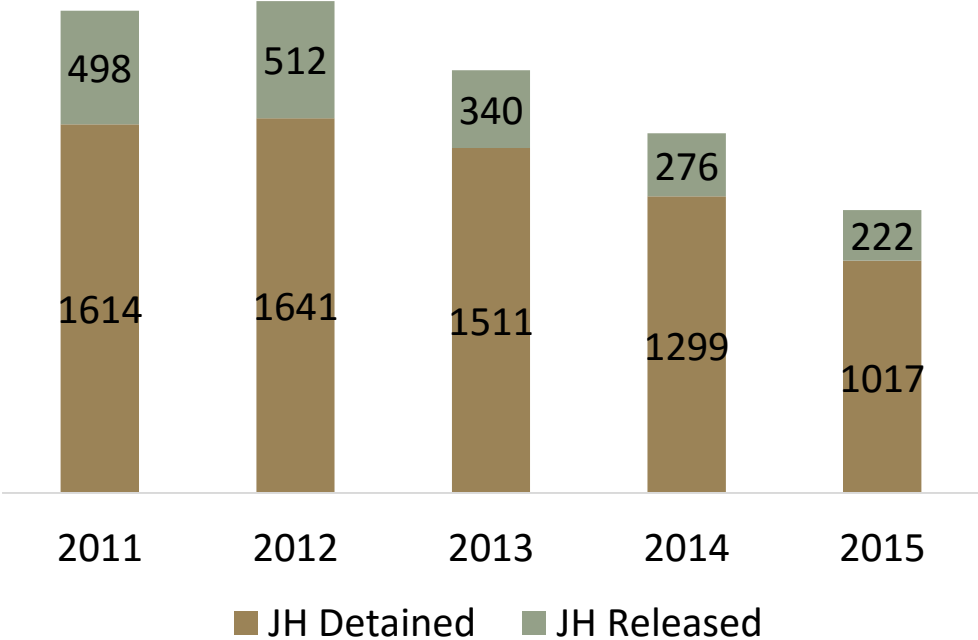

Most Frequent Reasons: Violations of Probation (29%); Property Crimes (25%); Felony Crimes Against People (22%).

Racial and Ethnic Disparities: Black and Latino youth were 12 and 7 times more likely than White youth to be detained.

Geography: 95127 and 95111 were the ZIP Codes that had the highest number of youth admitted to secure detention.

Age: 16 and 17 year olds accounted for 59 percent of all referrals to Juvenile Hall.

2011-2015 Juvenile Hall Intake Decision

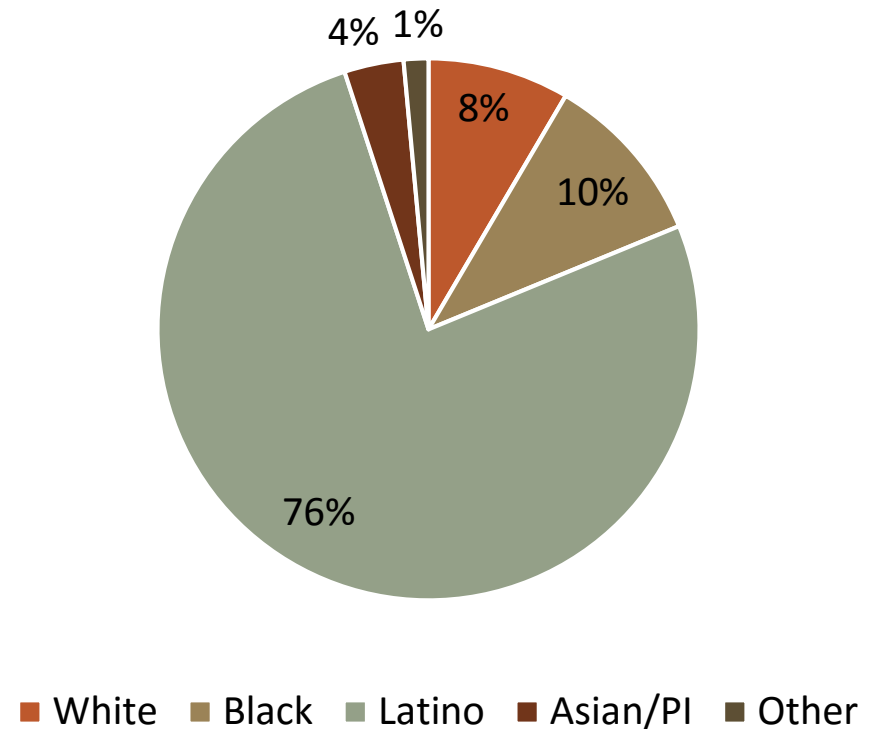

Intakes & Admissions: Demographics

2015 Age & Gender of Youth in Detention

Age	Male	Female	Grand Total
13 & Under	14	9	23
14-15	238	69	307
16 & Oder	558	129	687
Grand Total	810	207	1017

Santa Clara County Admissions (2015)

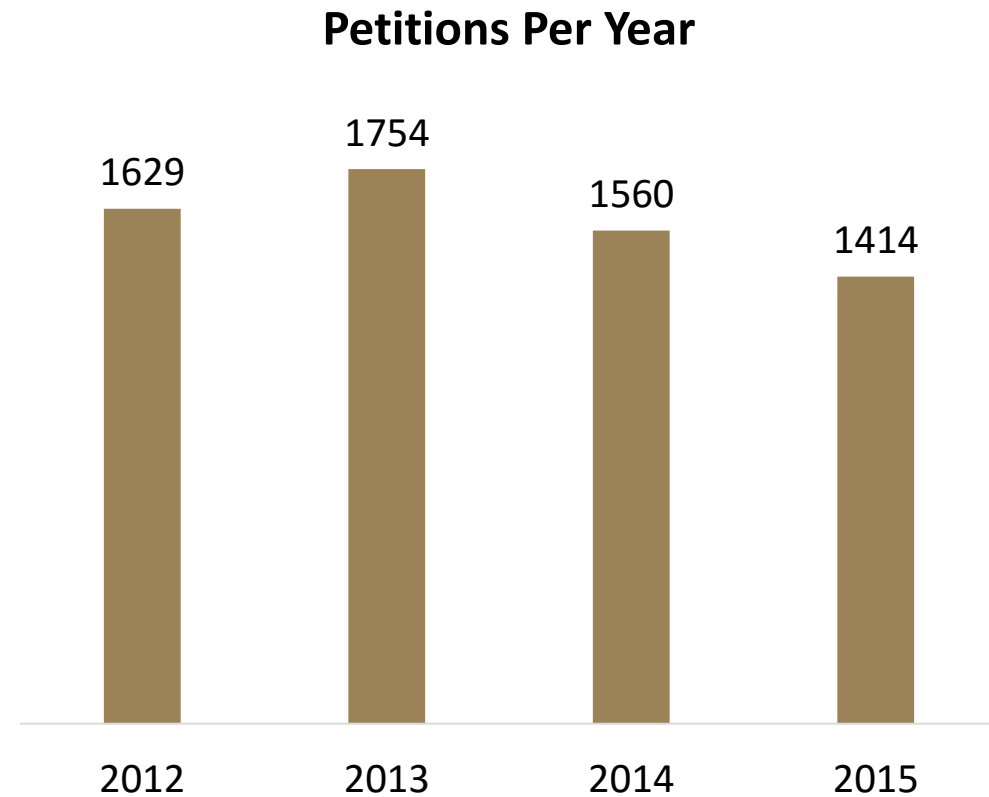

Petitions

Petition Numbers: 1,414

Trends: 10% fewer petitions in 2015 than 2014.

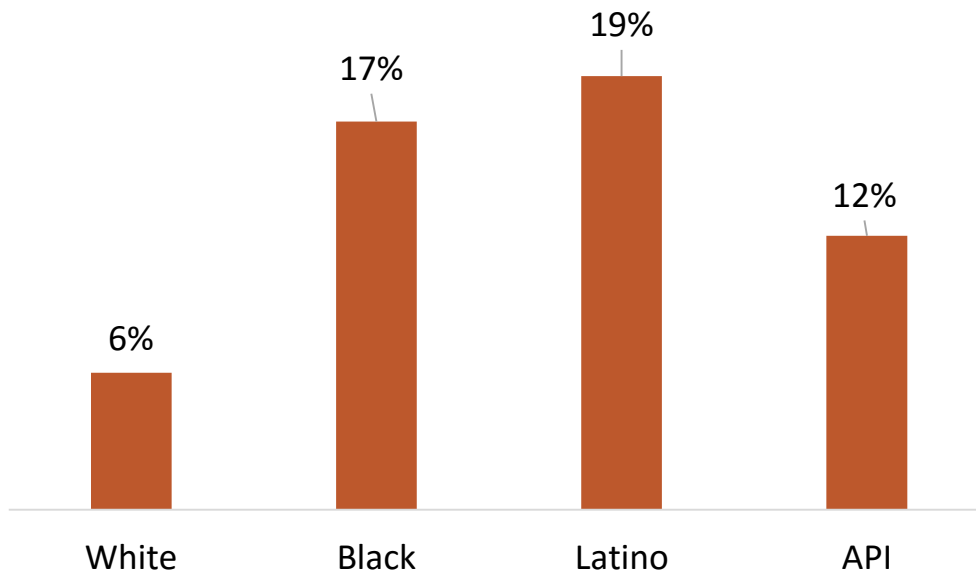

Most Frequent Reasons: Car Theft, Residential Burglary, Resisting Arrest and Robbery.

Disparities: Black and Latino youth were 7 and 5 times more likely to be petitioned than White youth, respectively.

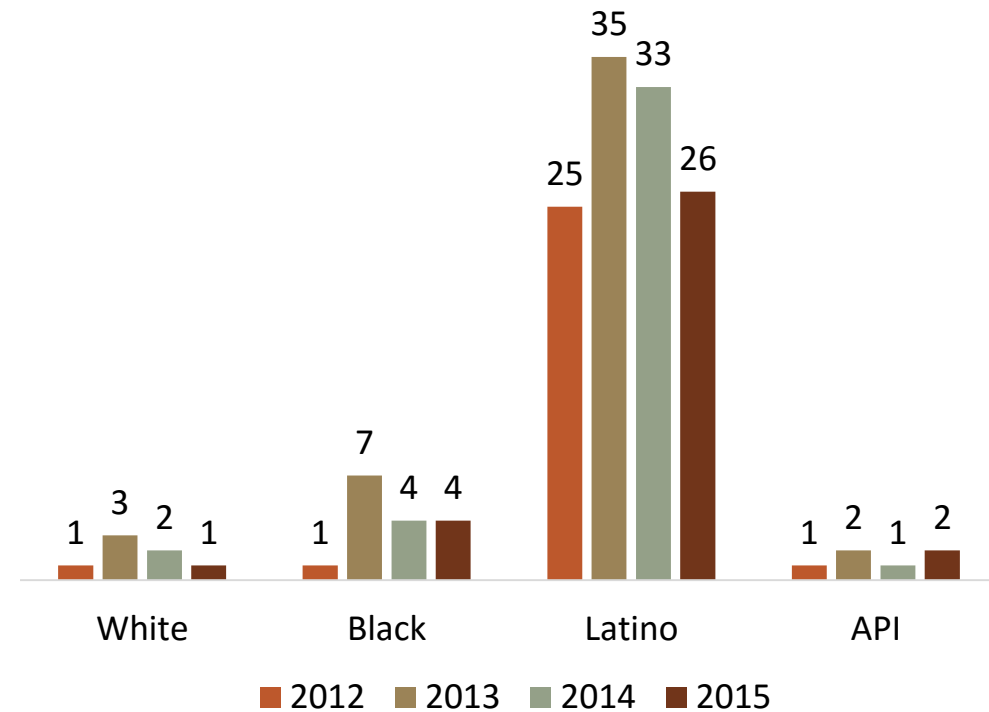

Youth Directly Filed in Adult Court

2015 Percent of Eligible Youth who were Directly Filed

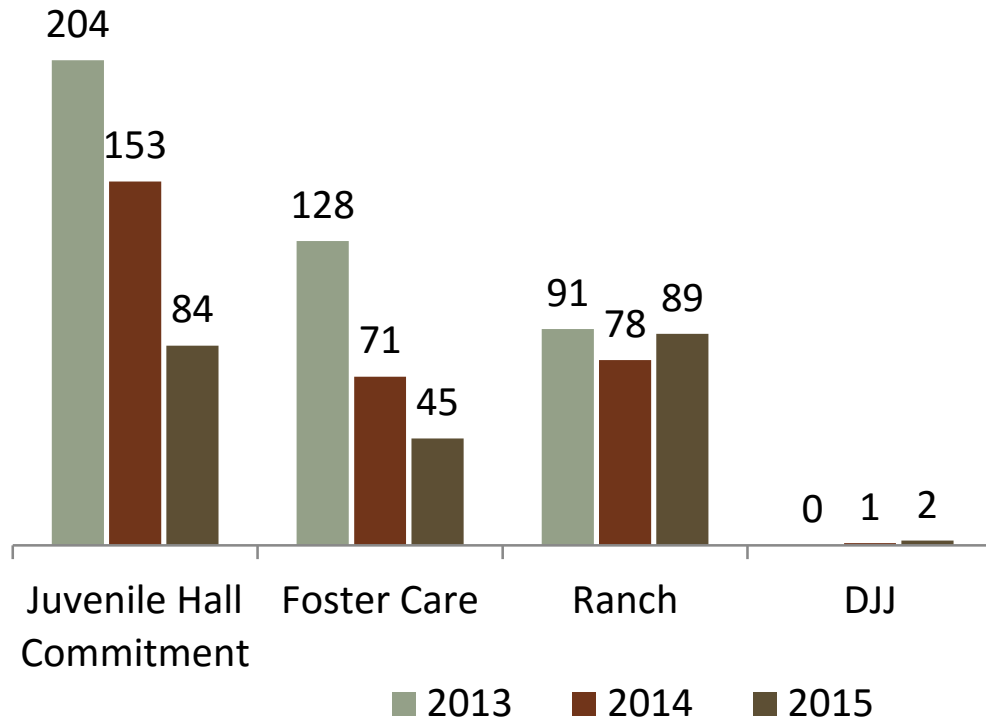

Number of Direct Files 2012-2015

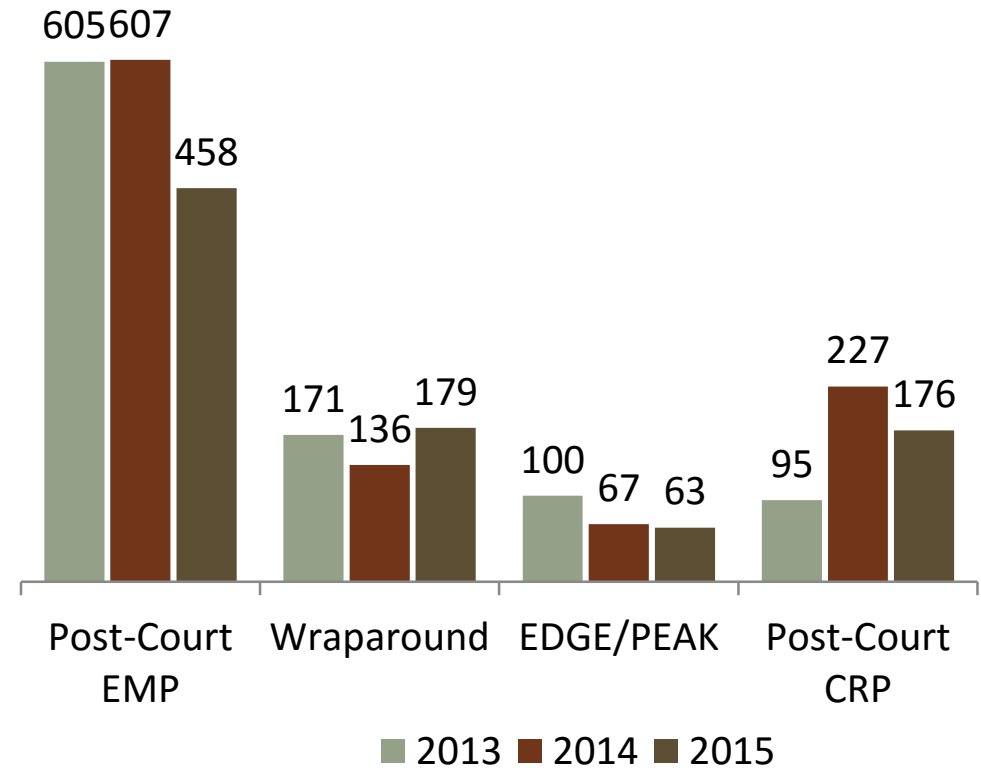

Dispositional Outcomes

2013-2015 Commitments & Placements from Dispositions

2013-2015 Number of Youth in Alternatives

THANK YOU!

Mariel Caballero

Juvenile Probation Services Division

(408) 483-8841

Mariel.Caballero@pro.sccgov.org

<https://www.sccgov.org/sites/probation/Pages/Annual-Reports.aspx>